Don't Shy Away from Pink...

You won't find a more versatile, food-pairing wine for your outdoor dining pleasure than a bubbling or still Rosé. Quickly becoming the wine of choice in this season of warmer weather, lighter fare, and casual fun, Rosés are perfect for summer sipping. To produce a rosé wine, the winemaker will separate the juice from the crushed grapes from the skins relatively quickly. The color of the wine will depend on the length of time the grape's juice has been in contact with the grape's skins, as well as the grape's variety. Rosés are not to be confused with a 'blush' wine which is often indicated by the word 'white' on the label, such as White Zinfandel, White Merlot, White Shiraz which is naturally sweeter, Rosés are traditionally light and dry. So enjoy a versatile, refreshing rose with your next al fresco meal!

Andrea recommends trying;

- Mulderbosch Rosé of Cabernet from South Africa
- Ch. Routas Rosé from France
- Goats du Roam Rosé from South Africa
- Menage a Trois Rose from California
- Pink Truck from California
- Bon-Bon Shiraz Rosé from Australia.
