Dear (Contact First Name)

Remember Dad... stop in to pick up something special!

Summer...the season that we all have been waiting for. There's so much to look forward to now that school is out and warmer weather is finally rolling in. Whether it's outdoor activities, such as gardening or golfing with friends, or more physical endeavors such as tennis, swimming and sailing, or even just to lay back in the hammock after a hectic day,

Father's Day is a great day to kick off the 'outdoor ' season.

We've provided links that you can explore for some creative options to the traditional backyard barbecue. We hope these grilling tips, recipes for food and drinks, pairings for wine and beer will inspire you to 'kick it up a notch'.

Let Cape Cod Package Store be your entertaining resource!

In honor of Father's Day

Firing up the grill? Does a perfectly grilled juicy rib-eye steak fall at the top Dad's list? If so, a robust and concentrated Malbec from Argentina, such as Catena Malbec Alta, would be a perfect match. Let the infamous Bobby Flay share his recipes for a latin-influenced barbecue. Or you can surprise Dad and pair a Sauvignon Blanc from Oyster Bay with grilled lobster with corn and sweet potatoes salad.

In general when it comes to wine and grilled fare, a pungent Sauvignon Blanc, fruity rosé, or power-packed Zinfandel or Shiraz are bold enough to stand up to the intensity of grill foods, they can take on spicy meat rubs and sweet barbecue sauces with ease.

All of these recipes, along with tips for grilling, are available on www.epicourous.com

Summer Brews

In the beer department, we have expanded your seasonal choices with summers brews from nationally distributed breweries like Sam Adams to local crafters like Wachusett, Harpoon, and Sierra Nevada. What makes for a great summer brew? What traditions are behind these seasonal brews? And what foods work best with these beers? To find out the answers click here for more info on summer brews
