Dear (Contact First Name)

Now that fall is in full swing...along with the Red Sox, take the opportunity to 'enjoy the moment!' Cook up an autumnal meal from the local harvest or gather friends and family for a "sox fest" while you watch the World Series. GO SOX!!

Treat yourself and enjoy your favorite beverages in the 'NEW' freezable pilsners, insulated mugs or plastic tumblers with the Red Sox logo! Plan ahead and pick one up for a special 'someone' for the holidays.

Looking forward to the holidays, our focus is on what we can do for you! Send us a quick email at info@capecodpackagestore.com with your requests. We'd love to hear from you. Share a favorite recipe or food and wine pairing. We just may publish it in an upcoming e-newsletter.

News on Seasonal Brews

Let us help you plan a 'spirited' Halloween gathering with some of the seasonal brews available today. Try Hobgoblin, from Wychwood, the UK's largest brewery of organic beers. It is a dark cask ale produced as their seasonal ale for October. Maybe Wychwood's Hobgoblin Dark English, Scarecrow Golden Pale, and Wytchcraft Blonde would put you in the mood for a few tricks or treats!

How about trying a pumpkin beer? Lakefront's Pumpkin Lager is the only pumpkin lager beer in the world. All others are ales. Why is this important you may ask. As they lager their pumpkin beer for a full 4 weeks, the extra time gives the Lakefront Pumpkin Lager a deep, smooth richness that no ale can match.

Also from Lakefront Brewery, New Grist, is an ale brewed from sorghum, hops, water, rice and gluten-free yeast grown on molasses. These ingredients are carefully combined to form a crisp, refreshing "seasonal ale" brewed for those with Celiac Disease and anyone with an appreciation for great tasting, handmade beer for that matter. New Grist is the first beer brewed without malted barley or gluten-containing products to be authorized by the U.S. Government.

Or try Organic ESB (ale), one of the few beers brewed in the world using 100% certified organic ingredients, It is a classic British style Extra Special Bitter that is amber in color with cascade hop flavor that gives it a refreshing taste.

Last but not least, Riverwest Stein (Lager) their flagship beer named after the hardworking neighborhood in which Lakefront Brewery was founded, is a rich Vienna-Style amber lager.

Spirited Liqueurs

Just in time for Fall gatherings and available for a limited time, try a Pumpkin Spice Liqueur by Hiram Walker.

For a Pumpkintini, mix 1 part Stolli Vanil and 1 part Hiram Walkers Pumpkin Spice. Shake with ice and strain into a cinnamon-sugar rimmed martini glass.

October Wine of the Month

It may sound like a pun on connoisseur, but Cono Sur, actually represents a piece of South American geography. The Southern Cone, con (cone) - sur (south), is where Chile is located. More specifically, Chile is on the western edge of the southern coast.

The winery, founded in 1993, employs winemaker, Adolfo Hurtado, who has a "Pinot Noir soul". Chile has not been known for serious Pinot Noir, but Hurtado is out to change that. In 1999, he developed the Pinot Noir Project, where they vinify Pinot Noir according to the traditional method of French region of Burgundy. Today, Cono Sur is presently the biggest producer of Pinot Noir in South America. Stop in to pick up a bottle and judge the quality for yourself, along with several other excellent varietals. These Chilean wines, which are solid, flavorful, and are true to the characteristic of the varietal, are a great value.

Support Breast Cancer Research

Don't miss out on participating in Breast Cancer Awareness Month by purchasing wine from wineries that have committed to donating a portion of their proceeds this month to Breast Cancer research. Big Tattoo, Five River Winery and Fat Bastard are all part of this team.

Think Pink..Drink Red is Big Tattoo's slogan. As of September 1, 2007, Big Tattoo has raised $1,034,988 since their project's beginning in 2002. Unique to their program, half of the donations from the sale of each bottle is distributed locally to benefit charity. In Massachusetts, the money goes directly to the Faulkner Breast Centre.

Five Rivers Winery will donate $1 for every bottle sold during October to the National Breast Cancer Foundation during National Breast Cancer Awareness month. Click on 'Save and Celebrate a Goddess' to enter a contest and win a $250 Spa Gift Certificate for a woman who has survived or who is courageously battling breast, ovarian, cervical or uterine cancer.

For the fifth consecutive year, Fat Bastard will donate 25cents from the sale of each bottle purchased during the month of October to Breast Cancer Research. In order to provide you with further information from the winery, my attempts to link this paragraph to www.fatbastardwine.com have not been successful, but you can try!

A Repeat Performance...

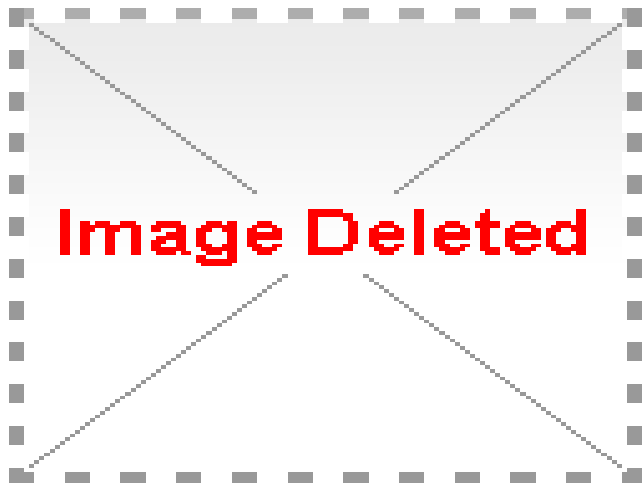

At the Chocolate and Wine Tasting held at Sepia's in September , we were all treated to a beautiful evening. The chocolates sampled were magnificent and the wines, ports and liqueurs were delectable! If you were unable to attend, we urge you to stop in at Sepia's to see what they have brewing for your lil' (or big) trick or treaters! Their unique products will be sure to amaze and overwhelm your all of your senses.

We pair up with Sepia again this Friday, October 26th at the Centerville Historical Society's appreciation event for their members. Maybe we'll see you there for more chocolate and wine fun. A big hit at September's event was a chocolate flavored wine, Rosenblum Desiree Chocolate Dessert. An exotic blend of Zinfandel, along with two of Portugal's classic grape varieties and an infusion of rich chocolate, Desiree Chocolate Dessert Wine is a delicious Californian interpretation of a great Port wine. Stop by the store and treat yourself to a bottle for the holidays.

Enjoy the season!
